

Income Generating Programs and Projects

PROSHIKA introduced a scheme for income-generating and employment so that the poor can build a dignified social position through this process. PROSHIKA has taken necessary steps including loan assistance as well as marketing assistance to make the poor self-reliant by following the process of self-employment.